Tamar Ames Thompson the second wife of Able Thompson, was the widowed sister of Juduthan Gray, who settled in Union Township about 1821. She was the mother of six children, and married Able Thompson, a widower with seven children. Although she nourished this flock of children, she was the only doctor in the neighborhood for years. It is said that she would turn out on the darkest night and ride a horse anywhere within a distance of four and five miles, and never charged more than $1.00 for her services.

EARLY TOMBSTONE AND BIBLE

RECORDS OF WATERFORD, PA.

1956

The bible records originally in this compilation will be found in the form of Bible Records, Vol. 1.

Foreward:

Earlier burial records of the cemetery at Waterford were lost many years ago. Feeling the need, I copied data from tombstones which were placed previous to the year 1886. This list has been alphabetically arranged, and followed by another list from an older cemetery within the boro. I have also included records from small burying grounds in the area. The names from the cemeteries located some distances away, are of interest to those seeking information of early Waterford citizens.

The small cemeteries include: Phillipsville - Chester Owen Farm - Old Applebee Farm - (Amity Twp.) McAllister Farm - (Venango Twp.) Strong Farm - Mackey Hill - Mystic - (Le Boeuf Twp.) Old Morrell Kendall Farm - (Union Twp.) Marsh - Bonnell's Corners - Oak Hill - (Waterford Twp.) Weston, Vt. and South Killingly, Connecticut (Wyndom Co.) Warren, Pa. - Gravel Run - (Woodcock Twp., Crawford Co.) and the old Thompson Cemetery near Union City.

A list of the taxable inhabitants of Waterford for the year 1823.

A list of the Waterford ladies who presented the Bible to the Clement Lodge I. O. O. F. in the year 1852.

The Bible Records include the following families:
Bittles - Boyd - Brotherton - (Reichard - Henner - Davis)
Church - Coe - Colt - Sheriff - Dewey - Ensworth - Foote - Wisewell - Hood - Hunter - Isherwood - King - Layton -

Foreward Continued:

(Bible Records)

McLean - McClean - Armstrong - Mc Gill - Mc Lallen - Myers - Philley - Patten - Job Phelps - Rundell - Schoonover - Stranahan - Martin Strong - Titus - and Webster.

As I am no longer young, my niece Mrs. James H.
(Marjorie Stranahan) Wolfe, a member of our chapter, has typed three copies of the above records for publication, which we hope may aid many in their search for information of earlier members of their families.

Note: Tamar Ames Thompson

One of the unmarked graves in the Thompson Cemetery is that of Tamar Ames Thompson, second wife of Able Thompson, and widowed sister of Juduthan Gray, who settled in Union Twp. about 1821 or 22. J. Gray established the first Baptist Church in the Twp. and served for many years as an Elder.

Tamar Ames was a young widow and the mother of six young children. Soon after her arrival in Union, she met and married Able Thompson, a widower with a family of seven children. Altho she mothered this flock of youngsters, and cared for an invalid husband, she was also the only Doctor in the neighborhood for many years. David Wilson's History of Union Twp., 1881, says of her "She would turn out the darkest night and ride a horse anywhere within a distance of four or five miles, and for her services never charged more than one dollar."

Note: Ferdinand and Isabella Carroll

Ferdinand and Isabella Carroll were natives of North Ireland, and the parents of twelve children. In 1801 they set sail, with ten children, from Ireland to New York, in an old war vessel. During the stormy voyage of eight weeks, a daughter, Isabella, died and was buried at sea. They eventually arrived in Pittsburgh, from New York where they purchased a "Dutch Pioneer's Claim" from the Holland Land Co. for thirty dollars in gold.

The family journeyed from Pittsburgh to Union on pack horses, and lived in a crude hut on this claim. Ferdinand Carroll left a nice estate at the time of death in 1831.
